Principal’s Report

- VSU students and faculty member, Talley Mulligan, have been working on a series of videos that give an overview of SJCS. These will begin to appear on our school website in mid to late January. Our partnership with VSU will continue next semester with the provision of a student intern from VSU.
- LEGO training for teachers is underway with plans to incorporate what they learn in their teaching.
- Carrie Jane’s mother passed away after a short battle with cancer.
- Discover Catholic Schools Day: no one attended.
- Niche Marketing: SJCS has signed a two–year contract with this company. The diocesan Office of Catholic Schools assisted in providing part of the fees for this service.
- Open House: January 25, sessions from 9-11am and 4-6pm and then again in morning on January 27.
- Tuition for 2024-25: cost to educate is $8,700/year. K-8 non-Catholic tuition will be raised from $8,200 to $8,300/year. Partial discount for Catholics $1,400/year. Also, a discount of $1,000 off per additional student enrolled. Pre-K $6,150/yr. Additional students $1,000 discount. March 1 reenrollment fee will be charged, $450/child (same as last year) will lock child’s spot. New students $500/child enrollment fee. Extended Day $15/day.
